

REVIEWS FOR 2008 CUVÉE DIANA CHARDONNAY

90 WINE ENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE

JULY 2010

“The grapes come mainly from the Rancho Santa Rosa vineyard, which is a great one, source to many top-scoring Chardonnays over the years. The wine is brisk, tart and clean, with rich, dramatic flavors of pineapple, lime, honeysuckle and buttered toast. Really elegant and wonderful, and should blossom through early 2012.” - S.H.

90 Stephen Tanzer's INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

NOV/DEC 2010

“Bright yellow-gold. An expansive bouquet of mango, pear and Meyer lemon, with complicating floral and spice qualities. Pliant orchard and tropical fruit flavors stain the palate and are given spine by tangy acidity. The finish is smooth, gently sweet and quite persistent. I like this wine’s blend of richness and vivacity.” - Josh Raynolds
